By signing above, any owner, officer or guarantor listed above agree, individually and as the duly authorized representative of the business-applicant (i) that all information provided in this Application is true, correct and complete, (ii) that the property leased or any credit extended by MD Leasing will be used solely for business and commercial purposes and (iii) that MD Leasing is authorized to email information about financing, promotions, and other offers to the email address listed above. I/we hereby authorize you to whom this application is made, or your assigns, to investigate my/our credit worthiness and will provide financial statements, tax returns, etc., as you deem necessary. We will review the information carefully and get back to you promptly. If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To obtain that statement, please contact us within 60 days from the date that you are notified of our decision. We will send you a written statement of the reasons for the denial within 30 days of your request for the statement. NOTICE: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has, in good faith, exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: when you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. *Approval subject to MD Leasing Due Diligence and is not guaranteed.
